In his wake followed my uncle Coon Stokely Donelson, Patton Anderson, and several others, as fierce as bull dogs. As General Jackson led the van and approached the judges' stand, he was rapidly talking and gesticulating. As he came by me he said he had irrefragable proof that this was to be a jockey race; that Grey Hound was seen in the wheat field the night before, which disqualified bim for the race, and his rider was to receive five hundred dollars to throw it off, and by the eternal God he would shoot the first man who brought his horse upon the track; the people's money should not be stolen from them in this manner. He talked incessantly, while the spittle rolled from his mouth and the fire from his eye. I have seen bears and wolves put at bay, but he was certainly the most ferocious looking animal I had ever seen. His appearance and manner struck terror to the hearts of twenty thousand people. If they felt as I did, every one expected to be slain. He announced to the parties if they wished some lead in their hides just bring their horses on the track, for by the eternal, he would kill the first man who offered to There was no response to this challenge, and after waiting some time, and they failing to appear, General Jackson said that it was a great mistake in the opinion of some that he acted hastily and without consideration. He would give the scoundrels a fair trial and to that end he would constitute a court to investigate this matter, who would hear the proof and do justice to all parties. Thereupon he appointed a sheriff to keep order, and five judges to hear the case. Proclamation was made that the court was open and was ready to proceed to business, and for the parties to appear and defend themselves. Not appearing, General Jackson introduced the witnesses, proving the bribery of Grey Hound's rider, who was to receive $500 to throw off the race, having received two hundred and fifty dollars in advance, and that Grey Hound had been turned into the wheat field the night before. He again called on the parties to appear and counteract this proof and show their innocence. They failing to appear, General Jackson told the court that the proof was closed, and for them to render their judgment in the premises, which in a few moments was done in cordance with the facts proved. I was still on the fence forming one line of the large pound containing the property wagered on the race. Each man was anxious to get back his property. General Jackson waved his hand and announced the decision, and said: "Now, gentlemen, go calmly, and in order, and each take his own property." When the word was given the people came with a rush. It was more terrible than an army with banners. They came bulging against the fence, and in the struggle to get over they knocked it down for hundreds of yards. I was overturned and was nearly trampled to death. Each man got his property and thus the fraudulent race was broken up by an exhibition of the most extraordinary courage. He did that day what it would OLD DOMINION STEAMSHIP COMPANY. have required two thousand armed men to have effected. All this was effected by the presence and action of one man, and without the drawing of one drop of blood.

DR. GALLAUDET DUMBFOUNDED-THE PO LICE JUSTICES ASTONISHED, AND THE TOMBS LAWYERS DELIGHTED .- [From the New York Sun.]-When Clerk Johnson called for John Doe in the Special Sessions yesterday an officer went to the door of the prison pen and led forth a gorilla-man. His head was shaped like that of a large monkey. The resemblance was made more striking by the bair, which was short, brown, and siky, and hung on his head exactly as it does on a monkey's This man or idiot stood at the bar with his deformed head hung down. His eyes expressed absolutely nothing. The charge was that the prisoner had stolen a silver watch from Eliza Brown. The trial had been twice postponed on account of the difficulty in procuring an interpreter. The lips of the man-monkey had not opened from the time of his arnest, except to take in his food, and seemingly he did not realize his position in prison or court. Yesterday the distinguished Br. Gallaudet attended the court as interpreter. The Doctor approached the man-monkey and he looked at him attentively for a long time, then turned to the court, saying: "1 have never seen him before." The Doctor was requested to explain the charge te the prisoner and ask him to plead to it. Ur went Dr. Gallandel's hands, and mysterious figures were cut in the air. The prisoner made no response. After several trials bad failed to make him comprehend. Dr. Galieudet turned to the court: "Your honors, this is a sad case. The poor fellow doesn't even knew the deaf mute's alphabet"

The man-monkey new began to indulus his own fancy for mysterious eigns. He drew his right hand acress the left wrist as though to cut it off, and repeated the operation with his left band on his night wrist. Then be shot two fingers of his right hand apwards, and reversing them, pointed downward. This was Egyptian to Dr. Gallaudet, and he suggested that the court proceed with of HAUL and DRIFT-SEINES and STAKE-NETS the case on a plea of not guilty.

At this point one of the prisoners stepped from the prison-pen and shouted to the court, "That man ain't deaf or dumb. I told him tive minutes ago that his name wasn't Doe, and he said I was right. It was Sullivan."

A roar of laughter burst from the spectators, the court joining. Mrs. Brown began to tell her story, but she was suddenly interrupted by a stentorian voice from the scrubby mouth of the dumb man. The voice

"Yer Honors, I plade guilty." Another roar of laughter from court and spectators. Then Justice Otterbough composed himself and trowned. He said:

"John Doe, what is your name?"

"Pathrick Sullivan, your Honors."
"Well, Patrick Sullivan, the sentence of this court is that you be confined in the penitentiary at bard labor for five months, and
